

FEBRUARY Kids Week

Family-friendly activities and free admission for all children—up to age 18—through the week.

Enjoy Treasure Hunts for all ages every day, plus special programs!

Monday, February 18th

Musket Day at the Museum

10 am to 2 pm

Presented by the
New Plimmoth Gard

Colorfully costumed re-enactors brandish pikes, swords and muskets to commemorate the establishment of Plymouth's first colonial militia. Includes live musket volleys on the Museum lawn!

Tuesday, February 19th

Puppets & Pilgrims, 1 to 2 pm

See handmade Pilgrim puppets and learn the art of making puppets come to life with voice and manipulation techniques in a workshop presented by Gerwick Puppets.

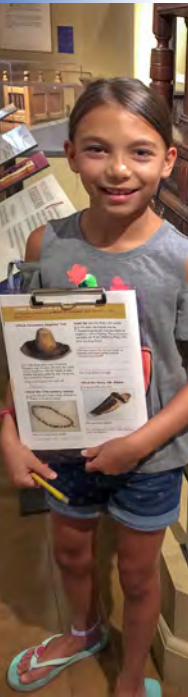

Suitable for children ages 7 and up.

Wednesday, February 20th

Fairy Story Time & Wish Catchers
Crafting, 1 to 2 pm

Jane Kelly, artist-proprietor of Keyhole Studio and creator of the Fairy Door Trail, shares fairy stories and guides participants in creating magical Wish Catchers to catch your wishes and hold them tight.

Appropriate for all ages.

Thursday, February 21st

Learn to Spin, 1 to 2 pm

See demonstrations of spinning on a traditional wheel with artisan Linda Doll, and learn how to spin on a Q-tip!

Suitable for children ages 7 and up.

Individual children with families are admitted FREE during Kids Week (children up to and including age 18)

Admission for adults is $12, $10 for seniors.
